CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE MEETING

Following Breakfast Church on February 26 (approximately 11:15 am), all who are interested in faith formation are invited to this meeting in the church library to review what we've been doing and plan out the rest of the year.

SHINE: LIVING IN GOD'S LIGHT – Matthew 25:31–45: Sheep and Goats

- Which act of service would be easiest for you to do?
- Pray "help others" prayers, focusing on the needs of people Jesus named in this story— people who are hungry, thirsty, sick, in prison, or a stranger. Ask God to show you ways that you can care for people in need.
- Make food to share with a neighbor or donate food to a local food pantry.
- Coloring page from Illustrated Ministries – Matthew 4:1-11 – can be found on our website: www.npucc.org. Go to Connect, then Worship Resources in the drop-down menu.

BIBLE & BREWS

- Bible & Brews, now hybrid in the library or via Zoom, is tonight February 24 at 7 pm.
- Your homework for this meet up is to read the remainder of Chapter 4 (pages 55-66) from Conversations With Scripture: Revelation by Frederick Schmidt; Revelation Chapters 4 & 5 from your personal bible, and Session 3 "Who Is Worthy?" handout from Faithful & True.

LENTEN STUDY

- We are using Original Blessing: Putting Sin in Its Rightful Place by Danielle Shroyer. Study guides are available in the church office.
- On Tuesday, February 28 at 1 pm we'll be meeting in the Fireside Room. For this first meet up, please read Introduction, Blessing is Like Bulletproof Glass, and Blessing is God's Prerogative. The Scripture for reflection is Isaiah 43:1 and Genesis 1.
- Please direct any questions to Pastor Amy or Lynn.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH AT STORY CORPS – THE TREASURES OF MRS. GRADY'S LIBRARY

- Growing up in Arkansas in the 1950s, Judge Olly Neal was afraid to let his high school classmates see him reading.
- To keep this secret, he would steal books from the library.
- What he didn't realize was that the librarian Mrs. Grady was supporting his love of reading from afar.
